Rules: Contestants agree to abide by the rules set forth by the St. Charles County Hawg Hunters Fishing Club. Only one fishing rod may be used by each contestant. Bait of any kind may be used. Adults may assist only in casting and baiting hooks. All bass will be weighed by a member of the Hawg Hunters and then released unharmed. The contestant with the largest single bass weight in their category wins. St. Charles County Hawg Hunters reserves the right to disqualify anyone who displays unsportsmanlike conduct. All rules of the Missouri Department of Conservation apply.
